

Caswell Fellows

Larry DeWerd, PhD
Caswell Fellow
University of Wisconsin Medical
Radiation Research Center
Madison, WI

CIRMS

- As already mentioned, CIRMS began in 1992 with its first meeting. The slate of officers were:
 - President: Marshall Cleland
 - First Vice-President: Peter Almond
 - Second Vice-President: Tom Bell
 - Secretary-Treasurer: Elmer Eisenhower
 - NIST Representative: Randy Caswell
- This is the 25th anniversary meeting.

Caswell Fellows

- The Caswell award was instituted in 2000, with the first awardee being Randall Caswell.
- The award is given as recognition for Distinguished Achievements in the Field of Ionizing Radiation Measurements and Standards.
- Fellow became the “official” designation in place of ”awardee”

The List of Fellows

- As mentioned Randall Caswell was the first Fellow.
- The award is not necessarily given every year.

Caswell Fellows

Year	Fellow
2000	Randall Caswell
2002	H. Thompson Heaton, II
2004	Anthony J. Berejka
2006	Kenneth L. Swinth
2007	Bert M. Coursey
2008	Larry A. DeWerd
2009	Marshall Cleland
2010	Geoffrey Ibbott

Caswell Fellows (continued)

Year	Fellow
2011	Kenneth Inn
2012	Joseph C. McDonald
2013	Stephen M. Seltzer
2015	X. George Xu
2016	James A. Deye

Caswell Fellow for 2017

- Peter Almond
 - He was the first First Vice-President of CIRMS
 - He was involved with NIST and calibrations for Medical. He was an author of AAPM's TG 51 and the paper on calibration of plane-parallel ionization chambers for Electron Beams.